PDF file or a Word document, in any format or lay-out that can be used by referees to evaluate your manuscript. Pure opinion pieces will not be considered for this paper type. If your research article is accepted, your methods article will automatically be transferred over to MethodsX where it will be editorially reviewed. Single author: the author's name (without initials, unless there is ambiguity) and the year of publication; 2. Authors who have video or animation files that they wish to submit with their article are strongly encouraged to include links to these within the body of the article. If these references are included in the reference list they should follow the standard reference style of the journal and should include a substitution of the publication date with either 'Unpublished results' or 'Personal communication'. Potential reviewers should not include anyone with whom they have collaborated during the research being submitted. Methods that are already published should be summarized, and indicated by a reference. References Citation in text Please ensure that every reference cited in the text is also present in the reference list (and vice versa). If excerpts from other copyrighted works are included, the author(s) must obtain written permission from the copyright owners and credit the source(s) in the article. Additional Information Editorial Process Publishing space in the journal is limited, such that many manuscripts must be rejected. To request such a change, the Editor must receive the following from the corresponding author: (a) the reason for the change in author list and (b) written confirmation (e-mail, letter) from all authors that they agree with the addition, removal or rearrangement. The Editor's decision is final. Note that missing data will be highlighted at proof stage for the author to correct. Abbreviations Define abbreviations that are not standard in this field in a footnote to be placed on the first page of the article. The Editor is responsible for the final decision regarding acceptance or rejection of articles. Authors for whom English is not the first language are advised to consult with a technical language editor before submission. Conservation research ethics violated. It is important to ensure that all corrections are sent back to us in one communication. Any such submission is subject to all of the journal's usual procedures, with peer review handled independently of the relevant editor and their research groups. Biological Conservation covers interdisciplinary topics within conservation biology and also provides practical applications of conservation research for land/resource managers and policy makers. They consist of a short collection of bullet points that capture the novel results of your research as well as new methods that were used during the (If any). Heliyon. If a quadrat is not used, use tabs, not space, to align the columns. Introduction Indicate the work objectives and provides an adequate fund, avoiding a detailed survey of literature or a summary of the results. Research lacks spatial or temporary replication, has insufficient sample sizes or inadequate data analysis.

The statements, opinions and data contained in the journal Biology are solely those of the individual authors and contributors and not of the publisher and the editor(s). MDPI stays neutral with regard to jurisdictional claims in published maps and institutional affiliations. Biology is an international, peer-reviewed, open access journal of biological sciences published monthly online by MDPI. Open Access — free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.; High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, PubAg, CAPus / SciFinder, and many other databases. Please include a short paragraph that describes the main finding of your paper, and its significance to the field of conservation biology. The authors should state in the cover letter if the paper in any form has previously been submitted to Biological Conservation. In that case the authors should specify the original manuscript number.
