In some cases, we're able to apply engineering enhancements to make remanufactured parts even better than the original components. Reman is also an important way to support sustainable development, which aligns with our commitment to environmental responsibility. Case IH and CNH Industrial Capital are registered trademarks of CNH Industrial America LLC. The name Case is used by several brands owned by the company. Later the company received worldwide recognition as the first manufacturer of steam engines for use in agriculture and, eventually, developed into the largest producer of steam engines. Actual breakthrough Case into the mechanical engineering industry for construction work took place after World War II. Case company by the number of built and sold backhoe loaders is the undisputed leader in sales, having produced over 700 thousand units for all years. By the mid-1990s, Case had grown to such an extent that it became a world producer of light and medium-sized construction equipment.

In 1999, the merger of Case and New Holland into CNH Global, which produced equipment for world trade marks of construction and agricultural equipment, took place. Case IH Tractor assembled its first mechanical thresher. Later, in 1842, inventor Jerome Case founded Case in Racine for the production of McCormick threshers. Up to the 1900s, the company gained worldwide recognition as a manufacturer who first started using steam engines in agriculture and later became the largest producer of steam engines and threshers. 19031910 The company began to grow and offices in other countries appeared. Including equipment Case came to Imperial Russia. In the future, these four people become known as the "Big Four".

In 1985, the US Law Department authorized CASE to acquire International Harvester. The new company CASE IH is becoming the second largest producer of agricultural equipment in North America. In 1963, Case already has 125 dealers in the UK, France, South Africa and Australia and 15 licenses for sale in other countries. In 1999, CASE IH merged with the Italian concern FIAT Group as part of the new company CNH Case IH and New Holland . Today, production and service enterprises of the CASE IH concern are located in many countries of the world. The company's dealer network is constantly growing and developing. Please try again.
