Scope of Cost Accounting

- Cost book-keeping: It involves maintaining complete record of all costs incurred from their incurrence to their charge to departments, products and services.
- Cost system: Systems and procedures are devised for proper accounting for costs.
- Cost ascertainment: Ascertaining cost of products, processes, jobs, services, etc., is the important function of cost accounting. Cost ascertainment becomes the basis of managerial decision making such as pricing, planning and control.
- Cost Analysis: It involves the process of finding out the causal factors of actual costs varying from the budgeted costs and fixation of responsibility for cost increases.
