Basically no ads unless you want to watch them to get more points/money/DNA/etc. You don't have to spend real money to get good stuff. Of course, if you pay you get the best content, but even without paying the game is still very fun and playable! There's a lot to do here: feed the dinosaurs, merge them, level up, collect money, hatch, fight and much more! So I spend a few minutes playing when I have time. I've been playing for several years! • I'll give it 4 stars. Maybe 5, but in the fights I've played you give your opponent an extra turn. So you need to have a higher tier advantage to confront him. This makes event battles like "Test Your Strength" where the levels are the same unwinnable. The extra traffic is too much of an advantage. So you just have to wait for that particular event to end before you can get back into the real game. Besides, it's a nice game.
