With three teams, two coaches and a vision to become the best youth soccer club in America we strove to be different, to innovate and professionalize the club soccer approach in Texas. Thirteen years later we are still driving forward with new opportunities, unafraid to always do what is right for our players and families on and off the field. In 2019 we were offered a unique and amazing opportunity to do what no other club has done. To truly partner with two international brands who focus on player advantages, opportunities and development. Never have we had the opportunity to wrap the level of support around our players, teams, coaches and families as what this trilogy presented and on behalf of our clubs we did not hesitate to say, "Absolutely!" The first founding beam in the trilogy is Borussia Dortmund. As the official United States Partner of Borussia Dortmund, we are both privileged and responsible for creating the world class training environment and resources for every BVB International Academy Club in America. The partnership with Borussia Dortmund's Academy in Dortmund Germany allows us to: Embrace and create the training environment and attitude of the finest quality that produces real opportunities for players to reach their potential Understand and replicate the methodology and training focus needed at the highest levels Demand excellence and quality in all aspects of the game Create professional pathways for our players at different age levels Offer the opportunity for players to be identified early in their career and then monitored for progression year to year by coaches from Borussia Dortmund's academy Develop coaches to their highest potential with exchange and learning opportunities Implement playing style and player milestones like the professional environment Use resources directly from the academy Represent nationally the Borussia Dortmund brand, the club's history and the outstanding reputation for player development The second beam in the trilogy of support is our uniform provider, PUMA. The history of football itself is intertwined with the legendary beginnings of PUMA. Across Europe, the far east and in the western hemisphere PUMA is redefining the grassroots efforts of support for their athletes and teams across multiple sports, cultures and ages. Unafraid to embrace differences, and careful to preserve tradition, PUMA comes at support for the clubs at all angles including: Grassroots events and name recognition Financial support for player opportunities Coaching development support and resources Gear and field equipment that sets us apart Customer service second to none National and International marketing and social media support in the form of campaigns, imagery, information and resources And finally, the internal development of resources completes the BVB International Academy trilogy. The School of Excellence, established in 2019, is a cornerstone of the authentic professional player pathway provided by BVB International Academy (BVBIA). This elite program is designed for top high school players, complementing our College Athlete Placement (CAP) program. Each year, the top 18 male and 18 female players are selected for an extraordinary training trip to Dortmund, Germany. These 36 deserving players will be immersed in the highest levels of competition and training at the renowned BVB Youth Academy. They will compete against academy professional teams and gain invaluable experience that few players ever encounter. During their stay, players will explore the rich culture, heritage, and traditions of Borussia Dortmund. They will traverse the vibrant city of Dortmund, experiencing the authentic intensity and passion of BVB firsthand. A highlight of the trip is attending a BVB game at Signal Iduna Park, where they will witness the electrifying atmosphere and dedication that defines Borussia Dortmund. BVBIA is dedicated to nurturing talent from the earliest ages through to college and professional levels, partnering with one of the best professional European clubs in the world to offer unique and transformative opportunities for both boys and girls. The journey to becoming a part of the National School of Excellence is a rigorous and competitive process, designed to identify the highest level of talent within the BVB International Academy. Here is a step-by-step breakdown of the selection process: Initial Selection Kickoff: The selection process begins with players being evaluated by club leadership, coaches and potentially Borussia Dortmund Youth Academy coaches. Regional Pools: Players are asked to compete within their age groups for a chance to be selected for their respective regional pools. Regional Competitions Compete Locally: Selected players from the initial evaluations compete in regional events to showcase their skills and vie for a position in the national pool. Regional Selection: Players who excel in these competitions are chosen to travel and compete for a national pool position. National ID Event Dallas, Texas: Approximately 350 players from across the regional pools come together in Dallas, Texas, to participate in the National ID event. National Pool Selection: During this event, players compete in front of a national selection panel. The talent pool is further concentrated as players are evaluated based on their performance. Final Selection Top 36 Players: From the National Pool, the top 18 boys and 18 girls are selected to form the School of Excellence Team. Announcement: The final roster is announced, and these players earn the opportunity to travel to Dortmund, Germany, for an elite training experience. The National School of Excellence is dedicated to fostering the highest level of talent and providing unparalleled opportunities for players within the BVB International Academy. Through this meticulous selection process, players are given the chance to develop their skills and compete at the highest levels, both nationally and internationally. Purpose: The BVB International Academy WA ID Clinic is designed to identify top soccer talent in Washington state. Our goal is to provide players with the opportunity to showcase their skills at college showcases and ultimately be recognized as top players within the International Academy system. What Happens Next: Following the clinic, player pathways will open to represent BVB IA America in local, regional, and national events. Through these events, the most advanced players will be identified and given the opportunity to travel and train in Dortmund, Germany. Overall Benefit of the BVB IA ID Clinic: This program offers significant benefits for any player within the BVB International Academy. Being identified as an elite BVB IA player through the ID Clinic not only enhances a player's development but also carries the responsibility of upholding the highest standards of character, passion for the game, and representing the BVB brand with excellence. 2024 Washington ID Camp Completed 2025 Washington ID Camp Coming Soon Welcome to BVB International Academy America BVB International Academy America is the official United States partner of Borussia Dortmund.
