Once you leave formal education, you are in control of your own learning. No one is going to stand over you and make you study. So, you need to organise yourself a bit. Keeping a notebook can help. Make a plan on how, when and where you are going to learn English at the beginning of your notebook, I find that a loose leaf notebook is best, or you can even keep one online (we all make mistakes and this way it's easy to correct them). Set yourself realistic targets and goals:- How often will you study? Where will you study? When will you study? How many new words will you try to learn a week? How will you test yourself? How will you measure your progress? In your notebook:- Write down the word, for nouns include the plural form, for verbs find out whether it is regular or irregular (if it is irregular write down its different forms). Write down any adjectives or adverbs that might help you remember the word, use word tables to help organise your vocabulary. Use a picture or diagram that might help you remember the word. Write sentences with the word in context, use word association to help you. Write the opposite meaning of the word (if appropriate). Write out the pronunciation. Knowing the phonetic alphabet can help. Dog is a noun:- Dog (singular= 1) Dogs (plural=1+) Word Tables can be useful to sort your ideas when learning adjectives or verbs:- Adjectives big small bad good dog brown clever stupid Verbs walk feed play with the dog groom train Pictures and diagrams can help you learn, draw them or cut them out from magazines and paste them onto your page Making meaningful sentences such as "Dogs chase cats" or "Snoopy is a dog", help you to remember the word in context. Word associations can be added to as you learn more vocabulary Dog - animal - bark - puppy - bitch - hound - tail - ears - whine Walk is a noun "I went for a walk ." and a regular verb "I walked for hours."-. Adjectives a long walk short country tiring With verbs take organise a walk enjoy Verbs walk / walked / walking walk home walk to work Adverbs walk quickly walk slowly "The couple walked hand in hand." "I walk to work every day." "Walking is good for you." Word association: Walk - stroll - ramble Word association: Run - marathon - race Please enable JavaScript in your browser so you will be able to continue using this application.
