If your pet falls ill or has an accident, the last thing you want to be worrying about is money for vets bills. With your pet insured with Churchill, these times are made easier so you can concentrate on your pet's recovery. We make it a very simple process. Always contact us prior to any costs arising that you may wish to claim or, when this is not reasonably possible, after the initial consultation and prior to any further costs arising. We will send you a claim form to complete and sign. We can settle bills directly with the vet if you prefer and the vet agrees to this. If you are about to make a claim for veterinary treatment please ensure that you read your policy wording as there are maximum fee levels that apply to certain treatments. All cover for ongoing claims is subject to the policy remaining in force.
