Rap music has a reputation for being explicit, which makes many songs in the genre unsuitable for certain audiences. However, there are some great clean rap songs that people of all ages and preferences can enjoy. Some of the songs included in this list may be surprising, but the artists have proven that you can make excellent rap music without using expletives or potentially offensive subject matters. Weve selected many great songs in the rap genre, including tracks from every era of hip-hop music. We also have the full playlist coved below on Spotify at the bottom of the page. 1. Miami by Will Smith Genre Hip Hop, Rap Year Released 1998 Album Big Willie Style If your elooking for rap songs that are suitable for all ages, you can delve into any of Will Smiths back catalog. The legendary actor began his career with DJ Jazzy Jeff as a rapper. He always kept his music clean, proving that using profanities wasnt necessary to sell records. Smiths album, Big Willie Style, spawned several hit singles, including Miami, which, as you probably guessed, is about the unique characteristics of the Florida city. Upon release, the song was a massive hit and claimed all the way to rank 17 on the Billboard Hot 100. 2. Gangstas Paradise by Coolio ft. L.V GenreHip Hop, RapYear Released1995AlbumGangstas Paradise In 1995, Coolio went from a relatively unknown rapper to a world-renowned artist almost overnight. The release of the global hit Gangstas Paradise, which was the biggest-selling US single of the year, etched the late Coolios name into rap history. Interestingly, Gangstas Paradise is one of the few songs by Coolio that includes no profanities. The story goes that to get the sample cleared by Stevie Wonder, all of the curse words from the song by Coolio, making this arguably the best-known clean rap track of all time. 3. Doo Wop (That Thing) by Lauryn Hill GenreHip Hop, R&BYear Released1998AlbumThe Miseducation of Lauryn Hill is considered to be one of the most influential R&B artists of all time, with her unique blend of conscious lyrics and soulful vocals. Her debut album, The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill, contains mostly clean tracks, which is rare for a commercially successful hip-hop album from the Billboard Hot 100 to date. The track won many accolades for its thought-provoking lyrics and catchy melody. 4. Can I Kick It? by A Tribe Called Quest GenreHip-HopYear Released 1990AlbumPeoples Instinctive Travels and the Paths of RhythmIn the early days of old-school hip hop, more of the songs that were released contained clean lyrics compared to modern rap. The influential group, A Tribe, Called Quest, released several expletive-free classics that still sound fresh today. The 1990 single Can I Kick It? sampled several classic tracks, most notably Lou Reeds hit Walk on the Wild Side. It has been claimed by the members of A Tribe Called Quest that the use of this sample resulted in none of them ever receiving any songwriting royalties from the song. 5. Me Myself And I by De La Soul GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released1989Album3 Feet High and RisingIn 1989, hip-hop three-piece De La Soul was on the rise. Their debut album, 3 Feet High and Rising, which included the hit single Me Myself And I, made waves in the burgeoning rap scene thanks to the groups catchy hooks, inventive sampling, and often witty lyrics. This song is notable not only for its eclectic mix of samples and rhythmic rhymes but also because the lyrics are free of any profanities, making it suitable for rap fans of all tastes. 6. Its Like That in 1983 when rap music was in its formative years. The group is credited with helping the genre reach a wider audience, and this excellent track has sold countless millions of copies worldwide. Although the economic struggles facing many young Americans at the time. 7. Now Or Never by Kendrick Lamar GenreHip Hop, R&BYear Released 2012 Albumgood kid, m.A.A.d cityWith its melodic, dreamy sound, Kendrick Lamars track Now or Never is one of the Compton rappers few clean rap songs. Released on his major label debut album good kid, m.A.A.d city, the track features inspiring lyrics about his rise to fame and success. It features vocals from R&B legend Mary J. Blige, and although it wasnt released as a single, its one of the standout songs from the album showcasing Lamars excellent rhyming skills. 8. Keep Ya Head up by Tupac GenreHip Hop, RapYear Released 1993AlbumGreatest HitsRapper Tupac Shakur is well known for his aggressive brand of hip-hop music, but songs like Keep Ya Head Up show a different side to him. Tupac started out as a poet and was also a talented actor, appearing in a handful of movies before his untimely death at 25, but he rose to fame as the controversial rapper embroiled in a battle between the West and East Coast artists of the early 1990s. This heartfelt song was dedicated to Tupacs godson and two other children; therefore, it is one of the only songs he released that exclusively contains clean language. The track samples The Five Stairsteps R&B classic, O-o-h Child, and its lyrics focus on providing support for females and the next generation. 9. All We Got by Chance the Rapper GenreRap, Gospel RapYear Released2016AlbumColoring BookChicagos Chance the Rapper became one of the most promising artists in hip-hop in the early 2010s, releasing several mixtapes that deviated from the trap and dirty rap music that was beginning to dominate the genre. Known for his faith in God, Chance the Rapper often writes songs about being grateful for the things in his life, like the track All We Got. Featuring fellow Chicago icon Kanye West, this song includes a jazzy beat, chaotic percussion, and a blend of horns, strings, and synths. 10. Nothin on You by B.O.B ft. Bruno Mars GenrePop Rap, R&BYear Released 2009 AlbumB.o.B Presents: The Adventures of Bobby RayIts rare for a rapper to enjoy the level of success from their debut single that B.o.B did when he released Nothin on You in 2009. Featuring Bruno Mars, who at the time was a relatively unknown songwriter and artist, the song reached number one in the United States and the United Kingdom. The music video was also nominated for many awards. A pop rap composition, its lyrics contain only clean language, making it suitable for kids and adults alike. 11. Cupids Chokehold by Gym Class Heroes formed in 1997, but they didnt begin to achieve mainstream success until they released their 2005 hit single Cupids Chokehold. The song samples Supertramps Breakfast in America, and the lyrics describe the infatuation period experienced when entering a new relationship. 12. Down With the Trumpets by Rizzle Kicks GenreHip Hop, PopYear Released2011AlbumStereo TypicalAfter building up a following in their hometown of Brighton, England, rap duo Rizzlekicks enjoyed national success with the release of their debut album, Stereo Typical. The second single to be released from the album was titled Down with the Trumpets, and as the name suggests, its beat is centered around the brass instrument. Rizzle Kicks music is aimed at a wide audience; therefore, they keep their lyrics clean and their subject matter light-hearted. In my opinion, this is easily one of the best clean rap songs of all time. 13. Old Town Road by Lil Nas X ft. Billy Ray Cyrus GenreCountry RapYear Released2018Album7The genre of country rap has exploded in popularity across the U.S. in recent years, and the most notable mainstream song to come from this merging of styles is Old Town Road by Lil Nas X and Billy Ray Cyrus. After becoming popular on the streaming platform TikTok, the song was released by the label Colombia and is one of the best-selling singles of all time. Its lyrics have no curse words, making it suitable for all audiences. 14. Good Feeling by Flo Rida GenreHip Hop, PopYear Released 2011 Album Wild Ones American rapper Flo Rida consistently released hits in the late 2000s and early 2010s, blending his southern rap style with elements of house and other electronic music genres. The track Good Feeling, which appeared on his album Wild Ones, samples Somethings Got a Gold on Me by iconic singer Etta James. Its upbeat instrumental is matched by clean lyrics that are themed on positivity and celebration. 15. The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air by DJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith GenreRap Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Smith Hip HopYear Released 1992 AlbumGreatest HitsDJ Jazzy Jeff and Will Hip HopYear R Fresh Prince of Bel-Air. The hit comedy TV show followed Smith as he moved from his Philadelphia home to live with his uncle, aunt, and cousins in the affluent neighborhood of Bel-Air. The show established Smith both as an actor and as a rapper. 16. Let You Down by NF GenreHip Hop, RapYear Released2017AlbumPerceptionNathan Feuerstein, better known by his stage name NF, writes only clean rap music. The exclusion of curse words in his songs hasnt prevented him from selling millions of records and amassing a huge fanbase both in the U.S. and around the world. The 2017 single, Let You Down, is NFs most popular in terms of sales, and it is about the challenges he faced in his relationship with his father growing up. 17. Hey Mama by Kanye West GenreHip HopYear Released2005AlbumLate Registration, is a rare exception. Dedicated to Wests mother and the way that she supported his dreams of becoming a successful artist in the music industry, the song is one of the more emotional compositions from the album. The song also has a lot of bass and unique sounds, making it a great song to test speakers. 18. The Message by Grandmaster Flash & The Furious Five GenreOld-School Hip HopYear Released 1982 AlbumThe Message Grandmaster Flash and The Furious Five are considered pioneers of hip-hop. The old-school production styles that were used in this era contained clean lyrics, so there would be no issues with it getting into the charts. The song is often cited as being one of the most important tracks in hip-hop history due to its influence on the genre. 19. Rappers Delight is one of the most iconic hip-hop recordings ever made. It samples Good Times by Chic and is credited with inspiring a generation of rappers. With its funky bassline, syncopated groove, and smooth-vocal performances from the members of Sugarhill Gang, this clean rap song still sounds fresh today. 20. Express Yourself by N.W.A GenreRap, Hip HopYear Released 1989 Album Straight Outta Compton Compton rap collective N.W.A were controversial, innovative, and iconic. The group, which consisted of Dr. Dre, Dj Yella, Ice Cube, Eazy E, and MC Ren, is credited with popularizing gangsta rap, and hip-hop legends have cited them as influences. Most NWA songs could not be considered clean, but this uplifting track is suitable for a younger audience. It samples the song of the same title by Charles Wright & the Watts 103rd Street Rhythm Band and features lyrics about radio censorship. 21. Walk This Way by Run-D.M.C ft. Aerosmith in 1975, Walk This Way was eventually covered by rap group Run-D.M.C in 1986. This version features Aerosmiths backing track, with chorus vocals provided by Steven Tyler and the verses rapped by Run-D.M.C. Its clean lyrics helped to make this song gain radio airplay and become a commercial success. 22. Check The Rhime by A Tribe Called Quest GenreHip HopYear Released1991AlbumThe Low-End TheoryA Tribe Called Quest constantly experimented with new sounds and pushed the boundaries of hip-hop. One clean track that is a good example of this is the 1991 single Check the Rhime. With a sharp verse from Phife Dawg and a catchy hook, this old-school classic is one of the best-known tracks from The Low End Theory. 23. The Search by NF GenreHip Hop, RapYear Released2019AlbumThe SearchIf youre looking for a rapper that has a clean selection of songs suitable for all ages and tastes, NF is a solid choice. His fourth studio album, The Search, includes excellent instrumental to match the fast-paced rap vocals. 24. Hip-Hop by Mos Def GenreHip Hop, RapYear Released1999AlbumBlack On Both SidesMos Def is one of the most underrated rappers in history. With his blend of intricate rhyming, expert delivery, and smooth R&B vocal hooks, the artist has produced an impressive body of work. In 1999, his debut album Black On Both Sides, was released to critical acclaim, with the profanity-free Hip-Hop being one of the best tracks on the LP. 25. Death Bed (Coffee for your Head) in 2020, and it quickly became an internet hit. The song blends emo rap with lo-fi hip-hop and features emotional lyrics that explore the topic of loss, grief, and hope. 26. Take What You Want, rapper Post Malone got the chance to team up with one of his idols Black Sabbath singer Ozzy Osbourne. Also featuring rapper Travis Scott, the song has clean lyrics and blends elements of metal rock with hip-hop. The intro showcases Osbournes impressive vocals, and the singer shows no signs of losing his power. 27. Follow God by Kanye West GenreChristian Hip HopYear Released2019AlbumJesus Is KingThe 2019 album Jesus Is King contained no profanities or offensive language, making it Kanye Wests only clean album to date. Mixing elements of gospel with hip-hop, the album includes many notable compositions, including the track Follow God. The song reached the top 10 on the US Billboard Hot 100 and was the highest-charting track from the album. 28. Opposite of Adults by Chiddy Bang GenreHip Hop, Indie RockYear Released 2010 track Opposite of Adults is a clean rap song that all ages can enjoy. The song includes clever lyrics about not wanting to grow up too fast. It enjoyed success in the UK Singles Charts, reaching number 12. 29.
