Jan is a tea-length dress with puffed elbow-length sleeves and a ruffled hem. Jan is a joyous spring frock, dedicated to casual strolls in the sunshine, weekend brunch participation, and generally a sweet celebration of Spring. Nine delightful textures round out the package to provide our Dear Girl wardrobe choices. An Any Color option is available to extend the utility of the dress. A handful of fitting morphs are available to help with difficult poses. Due to dForce and Autofollow, Jan will fit virtually any incarnation of Genesis 9. To use the Any Color option, click on the surfaces tab and find the Halter and/or Jeans. Find the Base Color. Click on the gray bar and choose a color you prefer. You can apply the color to all parts of the item at once, or you can select each individual part and make it a different color. Have all the fun you can!! The Standard Invisible floor is included to make floor poses easier. Chairs and such will probably require that item to be granted Static Surface via Edit > Object > Geometry > Add dForce Modifier: Static Surface. As always, not all poses and body shapes work with dynamics. Should a limb pass through the torso or another body part, or if the bend is too tight, Explosions will happen. Slight pose modifications will cure the latter, but if a body part passes through another, that pose just can't be used with dynamics. So give the Jan a whirl and see how much fun Genesis 9 can get into! And as always, THANKS for stopping by. This dress can go from the bedroom to the ballroom with the greatest of ease. It's a Nightie! It's a Sun Dress! It's a Little Black Dress! There are two versions of the dress in the package. One does not have the adorable little bow between the breasts. Because some of the bow textures work with more than one dress pattern, the bow is separately texturable! Included are eight stunning and exotic textures to cover any occasion (and due to dForce and Autofollow, virtually any incantation of Genesis 9!).
